MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director (Plans)

THROUGH : Acting Chief, Development Projects Division, DD/P

SUBJECT : ARC Recommendations for Future Targets, as of 14 April 1960

1. This memorandum contains a recommendation for approval in paragraph 3.

2. The ARC has reviewed the Highest Priority Requirements on the USSR as of today, taking into account preliminary information available on the most recent Mission - [REDACTED] The recommendations presented below are not being based upon operational considerations except that recommendation 3 b is designed specifically to be responsive to the operational requirement of approach from the South, this being understood as a stipulation of the Deputy Director of Central Intelligence.

3. RECOMMENDATIONS

a. That POLYARNI URAL and KYSHTYM KOLA (terms used to denote Groups of targets set forth in detail with justification separately in the Ops Briefing Book) should be covered in this order of priority if feasible;

b. That, if the foregoing is not feasible at this time, Group I of the Groups set forth below should be covered as first priority. If Group I cannot be covered, then Operations should choose either Group II or Group III as feasible. It should be noted that each of these Groups contains TYURA TAM and the VLADIMIROVKA [REDACTED]

(A Brief of the individual targets is set forth in an attachment.)
